

Name Virginia Willmoth Queen Of Centennial

Dark-haired, dark-eyed Virginia Willmoth, who serves sundaes and sodas here at Dyche's drug store, was voted "Miss Hobart" in the popularity contest to name a queen to preside over the city's centennial celebration July 3, 4, 5 and 6. Alfreda Kubiak, who placed second, will also share honors as "Miss Centennial", along with the eight runners-up who make up the queen's court of honor.

A coronation ceremony at which Miss Willmoth will be crowned queen, will be the main feature of the prologue of the mammoth pageant depicting the history of the city and to be held in Brickie Bowl on each of the four nights of the celebration. Over 750 local people will appear in the pageant which will be climaxed with a spectacular fireworks display each night.

The queen and her court of honor will also preside at the centennial ball, to be held Saturday evening, July 5, at the Crystal Roller Rink on Route 130, it has been announced by the dance committee.

The music of Mel Stetzel and his orchestra will begin at 9:30 a. m. and will set the pace for dancers until 1:30 a. m. Guest of the queen and her court that night will be Miss Beverly Trenary, of Gary, who recently was named Miss Indiana, and who is a contender for the Miss America title.

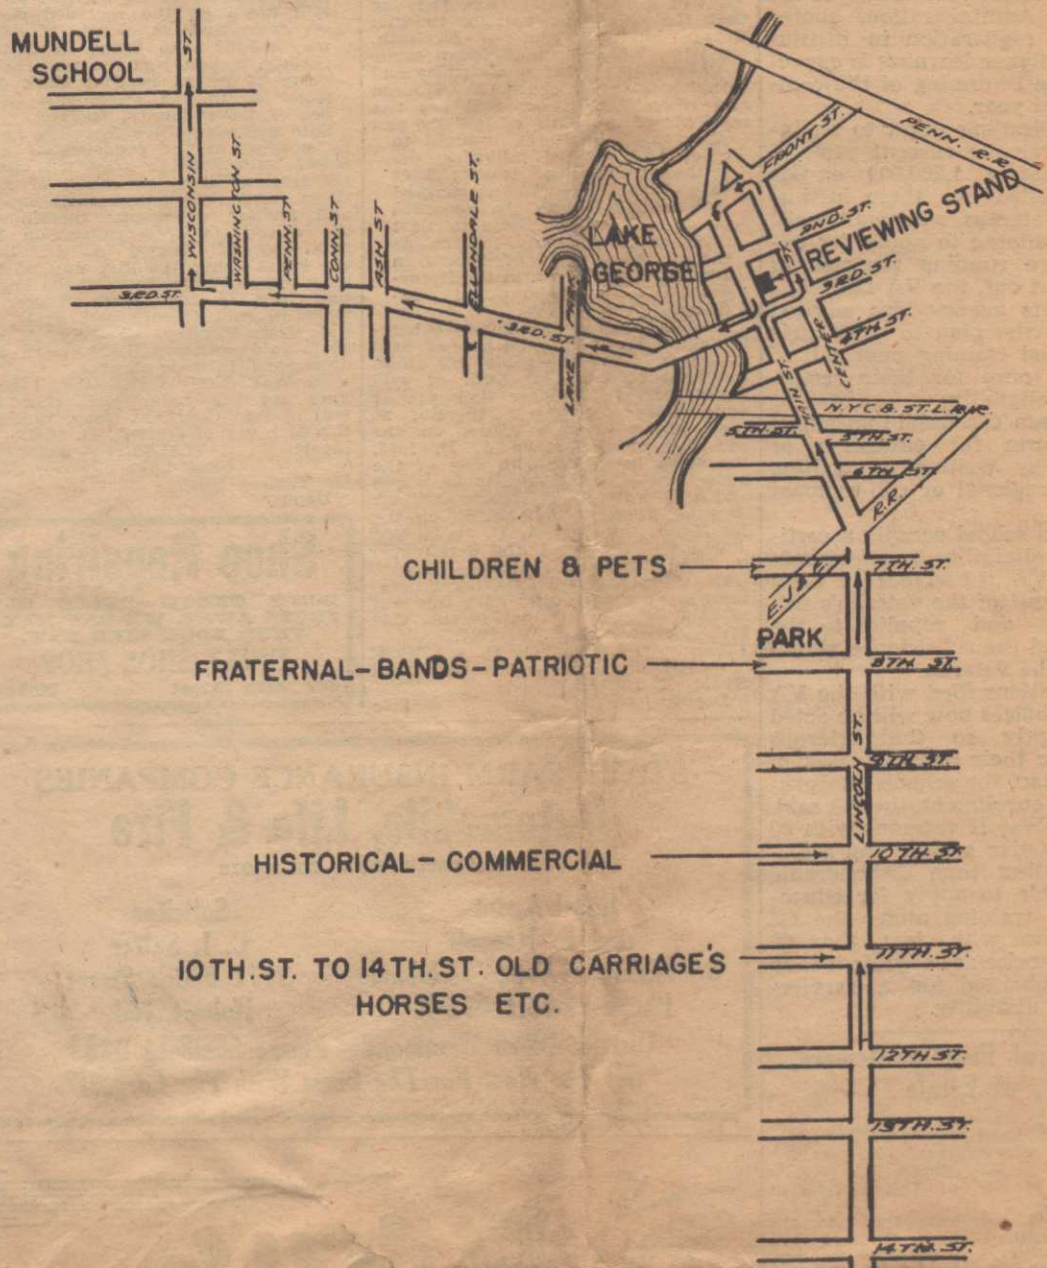

As a feature of the centennial ball, the prizes won by Miss Willmoth and other girls in the contest will be awarded.

It was announced today that nine local beauty parlors have volunteered to donate their facilities to the grooming of the queen and her court, so that Hobart's honored girls may look their loveliest on the coronation night. The following beauty shops will take the girls in hand; Clip and Curl, Rose Beauty Shop, Neva's, Colette, Lulu's, Maxine's, Frances', Shirley's and Helen's Beauty Shop.

Appearing in the queen's court of honor will be: Alfreda Kubiak, Jean Lounsbury, Pat Krull, Shirley Schoon, Betty J. Mendenhall, Janet Carlson, Luella Rowley, Mary Pellegrini, and Betty Carter.

Girls who finished out of the running in the contest, but who contributed materially to the success of the advance ticket sales, are Margaret Watson, Joann Strom, Doretta Mehalic, Pearl Hickman, Elaine Reisinger, Donna Schavey, Arlene Erwin, Mary Dudgeon, Margaret O'Keefe, Halie Shinneman, Rachel Julian, Catherine Galich, Rhoda Boyd, Sharon Peterson, Nancy Shroll, Mary Walter, Laura Banaski, Helen Kaemmer, Shirlee Mo...

Line of March For Hobart's Centennial Parade On July Fourth
